NARRATIVE:

Jared Escandon has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 20. His convictions include burglary, assault with a deadly weapon with great bodily injury, possession of controlled substances, grand theft auto, under the influence of controlled substances, violation of parole, and vehicle theft. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest, a 3 year term for assault with a deadly weapon with great bodily injury. Escandon was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on August 16, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in August 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Escandon qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for burglary is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
